

Camp Cherokee - Children's Ministries

Call ID: NAD-NYKC-000167-2024

Where: Saranac Lake, United States

When: Jun 13 - Aug 11, 2024

Summary

Camp Cherokee is in upstate New York. This is the only Seventh-Day Adventist camp in the states and many surrounding states. While at the camp one would participate in various activities, all of which one would be trained in during the first week. These activities include ceramics/craft house, ball field games, archery, ping-pong, pickle ball, frisbee golf, archery, rock wall, camp maintenance, and possibly kitchen, among other things. If one would want to participate with the horses or as a lifeguard, one would have to arrive one to two weeks early. Additionally, one could be asked to work as a camp counselor. A camp counselor's responsibilities would be supervision during cabin activities. Such as waking, bedtime, bathhouse supervision, meal supervision, cabin chores, flag raising and lowering, and camp worship.

One would receive one day off a week.
