Duties

To assist with the above-mentioned CDC class and to assist with such extracurricular activities and supervisory duties as the administration may assign. By precept and example, the employee will seek to uphold Christ as Friend and Lord and will endeavor to lead students to a similar understanding. Assist with records of attendance and scholastic performance in the register and grade book for that purpose; assist with course outlines and lesson plans as prescribed by the administration. Assist with the proper control of the students' behavior in the CDC classroom, school grounds, and premises in accordance with the rules and regulations stipulated in the Handbook. Assist with the neatness and cleanliness in the CDC classroom and school grounds; create visual aids, posters, and displays on bulletin boards, thus supporting a positive learning environment; be responsible for janitorial work in and around the CDC classroom and undertake supervisory duties at lunch hour and at other times in rotation with other teachers. Attend regular staff meetings as scheduled and other meetings and events even after school; join in-service sessions and workshops in order to maintain or increase his/her level of teaching skills. Undertake any other duties and responsibilities considered as part of the normal load; work in harmony with school programs and activities outlined in the Staff Handbook/Bulletin, and other directives set forth by the Board and administration. Regularly attend weekend services and assist in church programs according to talents and abilities (Sabbath School classes for all ages that need leaders and assistants, Pathfinder club, youth meetings during the week, door-to-door, prison ministry...the ministries that can be joined are extensive, and many more could be led by you!).
