Health Notes

Camp is located on a hill, and has several feet of snow in the winter. Staff must be in physical shape to walk in deep snow on a hill, shovel snow frequently, use stairs consistently, ride snowmachines regularly, and get up and down off the floor and under vehicles to perform maintenance projects. Some lifting will be required.

Dress

Acceptable:

You'll need warm layers for working outdoors, including snow pants, coat, hat, gloves, and boots. Please be intentional with graphics you wear, avoiding any that may bring up conversations we don't need to have with guests. Hair, facial hair, and nails should be neat and groomed. Jewelry is allowed, but should take into consideration the work you're doing, and be in line with safety precautions. Please consider leaving expensive and valuable jewelry at home.

Unacceptable:

Please avoid wearing graphics that could bring up conversations we don't need to have with guests (this could include band tees, political slogans, etc). Tattoos that are sexual, hateful, include profanity or inappropriate innuendos should be covered at all times. Expensive and valuable jewelry should be left at home.

Duties

Most weekends will be spent hosting various rental groups, with work on various maintenance projects during the week.

Experience

Willingness to learn and work hard

Experience with vehicle mechanics is helpful

Big Lake generally has several feet of snow, and stairs around camp. Staff must be able to work both indoors and outdoors and move reasonably well in snow. Walking and snowmachines are the primary modes of transportation around camp.
