

Task Force Women's Dean

Call ID: NAD-IA-000562-2025

Where: Cicero, United States

When: Aug 1, 2025 - Jun 5, 2026

Summary

Indiana Academy is seeking a qualified and mission-minded individual to come and join our amazing team as Women's Taskforce Assistant Dean. The position is set to begin on August 1, 2025 and is a 10-month assignment ending late May or early July 2026.

The school is located on 400+ acres of river & lake frontage with campus, farm and forest land. Situated on the outskirts of the lake town of Cicero, Indiana, the school's location provides country living within easy driving distance to all the amenities of a major metropolitan area, including Indianapolis International Airport! The adjacent Cicero SDA Church is extremely supportive and collaborative and encourages students to participate in an annually sponsored international mission trip.

You will be provided with free housing on campus. Meals are provided when the cafeteria is open. And an allowance.

A successful taskforce assistant dean will require good management skills, organization, follow-through, and supervisory abilities. Qualified individuals will be given the opportunity to substitute teach and lead out in extracurricular activities. Applicants must CURRENTLY be able to work in the United States and be members in good standing of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.
