

Summer Junior Camp Staff - Lake Region Conference

Call ID: NAD-LKRC-000769-2026

Where: Cassopolis, United States

When: Jul 8 - 26, 2026

Summary

We are looking for volunteers for our Summer Camp. During the summer for one to two weeks we provide a camp for youth ages 8-16. In this camp we teach the youth about Christ, friendship and different crafts skills that help them grow in Christian lifestyle. We are in search for Two Junior Counselors, Six Counselors, Three Kitchen Staff and One Bus Driver.

Each volunteer will be trained, lodged, fed and get to experience the activities of Lake Region Conference Junior Camp. Are goals is to bring young people closer to God with fun and a more youthful matter. Our theme this year is Super Daniel Bros (reference to Super Mario Bros). So come and join our team this year!

Duties

General Responsibility:

- To maintain a smooth running cabin program where campers feel comfortable and accepted, and where emotional and spiritual support is readily available.

Specific Responsibility: • Be a Christian example to campers while exemplifying and encouraging the lifestyle and ideals of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

- Be available to each camper as a spiritual role model, friend, guide and confidant.
 - Help campers with luggage and help the camper feel at home.
 - Give special attention to campers' personal grooming, cleanliness, need for rest and proper food, symptoms of illness or medical attention, and behavior which might lead to accidental bodily harm to self or others.
 - Use scheduled free time and/or time off allotted away from counseling responsibilities to best rejuvenate personal mental, emotional, spiritual and physical reserves.
 - Strive throughout the week, in all facets of the campers' experience, to create a spiritual atmosphere which will impact the campers spiritually enough to cause them to respond when asked to make a decision for Christ.
 - Assist in cabin unit in morning and evening devotionals.
 - Maintain a positive environment at all times--deal with problem campers immediately—use "chain of command" as outlined in staff policies when necessary.
 - Responsible for assisting in the cabin's cleanliness.
 - Assist campers with orderly departure until all your campers have left in correct transportation vehicles.

- Never use physical punishment. It might involve the counselor or camp in legal difficulties. In all camper discipline matters, deal in a consistent, respectful, loving manner as Jesus would.
 - Actively participate in recreation each day and help with games and activities on rainy days.
 - Assist in the planning of special unit activities with campers to build a sense of unit-cohesiveness by having cabin walks, rest period story sessions, special unit activities, etc.
 - Participate in weekly staff meetings
 - Know all emergency codes and procedures.
 - Deliver all items in your area to lost and found.

Experience

- Must be 18 years of Age or Older
- Have a love for children
- Must have at least two weeks of experience in structured group camping with children or have satisfactorily completed the camp counselor orientation program prior to the arrival of campers
- Must be a responsible, mature and dependable Christian
- Must possess current First Aid and CPR Certification Course
