Duties

Monterey Bay Academy seeks an Assistant Girls' Dean volunteer for the 2026-2027 School Year.

The Assistant Dean will work approximately 40 hours a week alongside the Head Dean and Associate Dean in the day-to-day operations of the dorm.

This position includes but is not limited to:

- Supervision of the dorm,
- Being a positive role model and mentor to the students,
- Implementing school and dorm policies as outlined in the school handbook,
- Being on duty on scheduled days, evenings, and weekends,
- Giving worship talks if necessary
- Managing student workers (janitors, desk workers, and resident assistants),
- Occasionally transporting students to and from appointments and travel necessities,
- Being available to assist the residents with problems and social interactions with one another,
- Being a team player with the other deans and staff members of MBA.
- The assistant dean also plays a role in helping students learn responsibility and independence, as well as
- providing a Christian role model for the students.

Important:As a volunteer, we rely on your support as needed for various activities, including weekend supervision during special events when staff are involved. All volunteers will be scheduled to assist in the Cafeteria Department one day per week, unless prior arrangements have been made due to physical conditions or other restrictions.
