

Math Teacher in Egypt at Nile Union Academy

Call ID: NAD-NUA-000818-2026

Where: Cairo, Egypt

When: Aug 10, 2026 - Jul 31, 2027

Summary

Step into a life-changing experience where your skills meet purpose. Nile Union Academy invites passionate and committed volunteers to serve as Math teachers, making a direct and lasting impact on the lives of young people eager to grow, learn, and build a better future.

At Nile Union Academy, you will work with a diverse and inspiring student body, including Egyptian and Sudanese youth who deeply value education as a pathway to opportunity. Your role will go beyond teaching language—you will help shape confidence, open doors to higher education, and empower students with the tools they need to succeed in a globalized world.

This is more than a volunteer position; it is a mission. You will become part of a supportive educational community dedicated to holistic development—academic, personal, and spiritual. Every lesson you teach contributes to transforming lives and strengthening a generation determined to rise above challenges.

Serving in Egypt also offers a unique cultural and historical experience unmatched anywhere in the world. From the timeless presence of the pyramids to the vibrant daily life along the Nile, you will have the opportunity to explore one of the most fascinating civilizations in history. Immerse yourself in rich traditions, diverse cultures, and unforgettable landscapes while making a meaningful contribution.

If you are ready to use your talents to make a difference, embrace a new culture, and be part of something truly impactful, Nile Union Academy is waiting for you.

Serve. Inspire. Transform.

Travel Advisory

Egypt

3 Reconsider travel

Reissued with obsolete COVID-19 page links removed.

Reconsider travel to Egypt due to terrorism. Exercise increased caution in Egypt due to the Embassy's limited ability to assist dual national U.S.-Egyptian citizens who are arrested or detained.

Do not travel to:

- The Sinai Peninsula (with the exception of travel to Sharm El-Sheikh by air) due to terrorism.
- The Western Desert due to terrorism.
- Egyptian border areas due to military zones.

Country Summary: Terrorist groups continue plotting attacks in Egypt. Terrorists may attack with little or no warning, and have targeted diplomatic facilities, tourist locations, transportation hubs, markets/shopping malls, western businesses, restaurants, resorts, and local government facilities. Terrorists have conducted attacks in urban areas, including in Cairo, despite the heavy security presence. Terrorists have targeted religious sites, to include mosques, churches, monasteries, and buses traveling to these locations.

Due to risks to civil aviation operating within or in the vicinity of Egypt, the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) has issued a Notice to Air Missions (NOTAM) and/or a Special Federal Aviation Regulation (SFAR). For more information U.S. citizens should consult the Federal Aviation Administration's Prohibitions, Restrictions and Notices.

Local law prohibits protesting or demonstrating without a permit. Being near anti-government protests can draw scrutiny from Egyptian police and security forces. U.S. citizens have been detained for participating in protests and for posting content on social media perceived as critical of Egypt or its allies.

The U.S. Embassy may have a limited ability to provide consular services to dual U.S.-Egyptian citizens. Egyptian law considers dual citizens to be Egyptian citizens.

Read the country information page for additional information on travel to Egypt.

If you decide to travel to Egypt:??

- Stay alert in locations frequented by Westerners.
- Avoid demonstrations and crowds.
- Obtain comprehensive medical insurance that includes medical evacuation.
- Enroll in the Smart Traveler Enrollment Program \(STEP\) to receive Alerts and make it easier to locate you in an emergency.
- Follow the Department of State on Facebook and Twitter.
- Review the Country Security Report for Egypt.
- Visit the CDC page for the latest Travel Health Information related to your travel.
- Prepare a contingency plan for emergency situations. Review the Traveler's Checklist.

Sinai Peninsula – Level 4: Do Not Travel

The Sinai Peninsula remains a particularly dangerous area, with frequent attacks on security forces and civilians.

The U.S. government has limited ability to provide emergency services to U.S. citizens anywhere in the Sinai Peninsula as U.S. government employees are not authorized to travel to these areas (with the exception of the beach resort of Sharm El-Sheikh; travel to Sharm El-Sheikh is only permitted by air).
