Kindergarten Teacher

Call ID: NAD-CSS-000906-2027
Where: Weno, Chuuk , Micronesia
When: Jul 26, 2027 - Jun 9, 2028

Summary

As a Kindergarten Teacher at Chuuk Seventh-day Adventist School, you will create a nurturing, faith-centered learning environment for young children, teaching all subjects through lesson planning, classroom management, and daily instruction while integrating Seventh-day Adventist values. You'll guide students in their spiritual, social, and academic growth, supervise activities, and participate in school life on this small Pacific island. The role requires a servant-hearted commitment, with a modest living allowance of about $350/month plus housing support for the 2026–2027 school year. Target age range: 18-65.

Lodging & Food

Lodging

Comfortable and Modern Dormitory Living at Chuuk SDA School: Our on-campus dormitories provide a safe, convenient, and welcoming home-away-from-home for volunteers. Each dormitory unit features: Air-conditioned rooms for year-round comfort in our tropical climate, Free high-speed internet to support studies and stay connected with family, Brand-new beds and fresh, high-quality bedding for a restful sleep, Three spacious rooms per unit, with two beds in each room (ideal for roommates or small groups), an attached kitchen and private bathroom for easy daily living, Free laundry facilities available on-site. Dorm life is enhanced by excellent campus amenities just steps away: A gymnasium, basketball court, and pickleball court for sports, recreation, and staying active, Our school café, which provides one free lunch meal every school day — with additional meals available for just $1, A dedicated teachers' lounge where faculty can relax, socialize, and enjoy meaningful fellowship together.,A brand-new, air-conditioned Toyota HiAce 12-passenger van that transports teachers to town for shopping twice a week — making errands and outings easy and comfortable.

Food

Daily Free Lunch for Teachers: Every teacher gets a free lunch at the café. Meals use fresh, local ingredients like fish, chicken, root crops such as breadfruit, taro, yam, and sweet potato, along with rice, tropical fruits (like bananas), and vegetables. Dishes are prepared simply—grilled, steamed, boiled, or in mild stews—to keep them healthy and flavorful.

Additional Meals: You can buy extra meals (breakfast, dinner, or more portions) for just $1 each, which makes it easy and affordable for busy days.

Challenges for Westerners: Imported Western foods (like certain snacks, cereals, or dairy) are often limited or costly because of shipping. This means the diet centers more on fresh local produce, grains, and proteins—healthier in many ways, though it takes some adjustment from typical Western eating.

Restrictions:

Campus After Dark at Chuuk SDA School: After dark, the campus is fully secured and locked for everyone's safety in our remote island setting. All students, teachers, missionaries, and staff are required to be on campus by sunset (typically 6:00–7:00 PM), creating a peaceful, protected environment where everyone can rest, study, or enjoy quiet fellowship together in a safe and nurturing space.

Gender Lodging: Either

Marital Status Lodging: Single

Child Accommodations: Not Specified

Dress

Acceptable:

Men teach in long professional pants but may wear shorts off campus or after school. Men must wear collared shirts to church meetings.

Women must always wear loose fitting skirts and dresses past the knee when going off campus or "in public" on campus. Women may wear modest shorts, slacks or pants only on campus in the evening or when exercising.

Unacceptable:

Women - Tight and/or short shorts are never acceptable, nor sleeveless or sheer blouses or dresses.

A conservative hairstyle is preferred for men and women.

Please refrain from bringing or wearing jewelry, and nail, lip, & hair color make-up.

Duties

Duties

Core Teaching & Spiritual Role: Teach assigned classes while modeling Christian values through actions and words; guide students toward faith in Christ as Friend and Lord.

Classroom & Academic Management: Keep accurate records of student attendance, grades, and performance. Create lesson plans, course outlines, and visual aids (e.g., posters, bulletin boards) to foster a positive, clean learning environment. Manage student behavior in class, on school grounds, and during activities per the school's handbook rules.

School Operations & Support: Handle janitorial tasks in/around your classroom. Supervise students during lunch and other assigned times (rotating with colleagues). Perform additional duties as assigned by administration, aligning with school policies and programs.

Professional Development & Collaboration: Attend staff meetings, school events (including after hours), in-service training, and workshops to improve teaching skills. Work cooperatively with colleagues and administration.

Church & Community Involvement: Participate in weekend church services and assist with ministries based on your talents (e.g., leading Sabbath School classes, Pathfinder club, youth meetings, door-to-door outreach, prison ministry, or other programs). This role emphasizes holistic education—academic, behavioral, and spiritual—while integrating faith and community service. If accepted, you'd receive the Staff Handbook for full details on rules and expectations.
